Maria Himmelfahrt

Abb 1: “Assunta del Renòn m. 1193” (Ansichtskarte, Zwischenkriegszeit).

Der Fotograf steht in der Nähe des Friedhofeingangs und fotografiert nach Nordwesten. Das Hauptmotiv ist die Kirche Maria Himmelfahrt in Oberbozen. Rechts ist noch ein Teil des Frühmesserhauses zu sehen. Sie wurde 1669 erbaut, 1791 erweitert und ist die Nachfolgekirche der weiter entfernten, auf einem markanten Hügel befindlichen Kirche St. Georg und Jakob. Maria Einsiedeln, St. Magdalena und auch Maria Schnee, letztere bis 1866 sind bzw. waren hingegen private Gotteshäuser.

Details über diese schöne Barockkirche mitten in der Oberbozner Sommerfrischsiedlung kann man im 2000 erschienenen Kirchenführer Die Kirchen von Oberbozen nachlesen. Interessantes Detail am Rande: Die Kirche in Bozen Stadt ist auch der Himmelfahrt Marias geweiht, welche bekannterweiße im Hochsommer, am 15. August begangen wird. Haben die Sommerfrischler das deshalb gemacht, damit sie nicht für diese Tage ihr Hitzerefugium verlassen mussten? Auch das Kirchlein in Herrenkohlern, einer kleineren Sommerfrischsiedlung am gegenüber liegenden Kohlererberg hat übrigens am gleichen Tag Patrozinium. Ein Schelm, wer Böses dabei denkt?
